August 23, 2020

Order of Service:

Welcome

Opening Scripture: Psalm 9:7-10 (Mike Singleton)

Song: Holy is the Lord

Sermon: Big, Isaiah 6:1-13

Communion: Today we will be participating in a celebration that was given by Jesus to His followers and passed on to us. This symbolic meal is a reminder of the incredible price that Jesus paid when He died on the cross for our sins. There is nothing magical in the bread or the juice, but they are images of the body of Jesus that was broken by the nails that put Him on the cross and the blood that He shed for our rebellion.

This celebration is for those who have trusted Jesus, received Him into their lives, and are actively involved in His church. Do not feel obligated to participate if you are unsure of the meaning or uncomfortable with the event.

Song: Great Ae You Lord

O Praise The Name (Anástasis)

I cast my mind to Calvary
Where Jesus bled and died for me
I see His wounds His hands His feet
My Saviour on that cursed tree

His body bound and drenched in tears
They laid Him down in Joseph's tomb
The entrance sealed by heavy stone
Messiah still and all alone

Chorus

O praise the Name of the Lord our God
O praise His Name forevermore
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord oh Lord our God

Then on the third at break of dawn
The Son of heaven rose again
O trampled death where is your sting
The angels roar for Christ the King

He shall return in robes of white
The blazing sun shall pierce the night
And I will rise among the saints
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face
