Member Meeting – TODAY, 12 Noon—1:00 p.m.

This important meeting allows us to give ministry updates, cast vision and get feedback from members. This is a gathering where we grow closer as a church family and seek to understand God’s plan for us. This meeting will also include feedback on the property proposal.

All attending worship are welcome to stay for the meeting. The meeting will take place immediately following the service. Childcare will NOT be available during the meeting; a couple of youth will supervise older children on the playground.

Genesis Kids Wants YOU!

We are always looking for more volunteers to teach our kids about Jesus. As we move to new normal, more volunteers are needed to serve on a team rotation that serves approximately once per month. Talk to Missy Raley, Leslie Holdegraver, or a volunteer at the Genesis Kids’ registration table for more information.

Koinonia—Our Online Community

Stay connected during the week by using our church social networking site: Koinonia.genesiseureka.com. Koinonia (the Greek word for fellowship) is designed for those who are a part of Genesis to share information and interact with each other. To join, visit the website and follow the directions to register. You will receive a confirmation e-mail upon successful registration. Contact office@genesiseureka.com with any questions.

NOTES

Sermon: I Am A Saint

Series: Identity Theft

Romans 1:7 (p. 1039), 1 Peter 2:9-10 (p. 1117)

May 16, 2021

So often, our sense of identity can be shaped by our feelings of failure and guilt, and the effort to find some kind of atonement. People will go to great lengths to feel forgiven and clean. None of us feel like a saint. That role is reserved for the super holy people, right? But not me.

One of the most common titles given to followers of Jesus in the New Testament is that we are “Saints”. No, you don’t have to perform post mortem miracles to prove that you have sufficient merit. In fact, the truth is that you do not have sufficient merit to take on this title. Yet, because of what Christ has done for us and the reality that redemption gives us a whole new identity, we can find great joy in the reality that we are a holy new people for God’s possession.

Benediction:
May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.
Romans 15:13

We are so glad you chose Genesis to celebrate Jesus this morning and we pray that God will speak to you through the service.

If you are a first time guest, we are especially thankful to have you with us. Please complete the visitor information section and place in the offering basket so we can follow up by email. Our Teaching Elder, Mike Hubbard, would enjoy meeting you after the service.

If you have a question or would like to pray with someone after the service, please come to the area to the left of the stage.
