NOTES

Sermon: Breaking Up Is Hard To Do

Acts 15:36-41 (p. 1024)

Sept. 4, 2022

Paul and Barnabas were heroes, fighting in the trenches of the Gospel together. They traveled the world and they stood unified at the Jerusalem Council. You would have thought they would be together until the end.

But, there was an issue that came between them—the person John Mark (aka, Mark who wrote the Gospel bearing his name). Mark ditched them on the first missionary journey, a hardship that must have hurt the mission. Now Paul and Barnabas are prepping for another world beating mission journey. Barnabas, the encourager, sees redemptive hope in Mark and wants to give him a second chance. Paul has his eyes on the big picture—the lost people in Asia who need the Gospel—and does not believe they have time to take a second chance on someone who already failed. So, the Gospel tandem had a disagreement that led to their parting ways.

There are times in our Christian journey where we will have disagreements and may even part ways. Yet, in this case, God multiplied the mission teams and impact. So who was right? Well, in a way, both were.

Koinonia—Our Online Community

Serving Eureka ... We have several opportunities to serve Eureka. Send questions to office@genesiseureka.com and please use the tear-off section or QR Code to volunteer.

- ◇ Eureka Days Parade – Oct. 1: The parade is one of our favorite ways to serve our community. Our “float” is the last one in the parade: a trailer filled with empty trash barrels; we follow along with trash bags to clean up the streets and collect trash from the crowd. This is an “all hands on deck” event for all ages.
- ◇ Eureka Days Kids Korner – Oct. 2: Genesis has been asked to manage the Eureka Days Kids Korner from 1:30-4:30 p.m. Volunteers are needed to set up the booth, pass out candy, and assist families with a craft.
- ◇ EHS Football Concessions Duty – Oct. 7: A volunteer is needed to serve as point person and a minimum team of 12-15 teens/adults are needed to work the concession stands so football/band parents can watch the game. A small group is needed at 5:30 p.m. to set up; others can arrive at 6:15 p.m.
