NOTES

Series: To Be Continued ...

Sermon: To Rome!

Acts 28:17-29 (p.1038)

Feb. 26, 2023

When writing Romans 15, Paul made his goal clear to the Roman church. He planned to drop off an offering in Jerusalem and then come visit for the first time to encourage this church living in the shadow of the Roman Empire. It was also his wish that the Roman church send him on to Spain so he could continue the glorious mission to which God had called him. His ministry was to go to the nations, take the Gospel to the Gentiles, and preach Christ where the name of Jesus had not even been named.

Although the way Paul arrived in Rome was much different than his expressed plan, he has now arrived in the most important city in the world. He was not the first to bring the Gospel to Rome, but his ministry in chains reminds us of the mission of God and the mission for the church. God is a sending God. He sent Jesus as our sacrifice to secure redemption, then sent the Spirit to empower the church to take the Gospel to all nations. And, He sends the church into the world so we can proclaim this, "Let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles (and therefore to you!)."

In this next to last sermon from Acts, we will be reminded of the wonder of the Gospel that is for all people.

Koinonia—Our Online Community

Stay connected during the week by using our church social networking site: Koinonia.genesiseureka.com. Koinonia is the Greek word for fellowship. Visit the website and follow the directions to register. You will receive a confirmation e-mail upon successful registration.

Contact office@genesiseureka.com with any questions.

We are so glad you chose Genesis to celebrate Jesus this morning and we pray that God will speak to you through the service.

If you are a first time guest, we are especially thankful to have you with us. Please complete the visitor information section and place in the offering basket so we can follow up by email. Our Teaching Elder, Mike Hubbard, would enjoy meeting you after the service.

If you have a question or would like to pray with someone after the service, please come to the area to the left of the stage.

Apr. 2—Genesis Kids Class: What Does It Mean To Be A Christian?

Whether your child has recently decided to follow Christ or is beginning to ask questions about what it means to be a Christian, this class will help you navigate the important conversations all parents need to have as they lead their children toward a life in Christ. The first meeting will be just for parents as our experienced leaders show you how to lay the foundations for spiritual conversion allowing parents to partner with the Holy Spirit as He prepares and calls their child to trust Christ as Savior. During the remaining sessions, kids will learn that God defines who they are. They can learn how God set their identity as image bearers of Him, how that identity was broken by sin, and how Jesus transforms them when they trust in Him and become a new person.

Save These Dates—Register or get information by scanning the QR Code or email office@genesiseureka.com with questions:
